Dominion Hotel Under New Ownership

Everyone in the county of Haliburton knows the Dominion Hotel here in Minden, for it is the second oldest building in the community still standing — only the old Clergy House has more years to uncover. The Dominion is said to be well over one hundred years old.

The Dominion has had many owners, too many in fact to go back over the names, however Steven and Kay Rastall have been the owners over the past fourteen years, until Monday, November 14th, when they sold the building and business to Mrs. Marie Kiedyk, of Kingston, Ontario.

The loggers in days gone by, when they used the Gull River for transporting their logs, made the Dominion their home, when they reached Minden. The loggers used to share the attic, and called it Texas, because of its spacious living quarters. The Dominion was also the main stop for the stage coach, in days before the automobile. This hotel was also home for the prospectors, in and around 1954, when the copper mines were discovered at Brady's Lake.

The Hotel has been a landmark for many people and home to many others. The owners of this Hotel through the years have made it a friendly place to stop over, and Mr. and Mrs. Rastall have certainly filled the bill, when a home was needed away from home.

Mrs. Kiedyk comes to Minden with a wealth of experience in the Hotel business, she is a widow, with one son, who runs his own hotel in Prawn, Manitoba. Mrs. Kiedyk told the Progress she has had twenty years experience running her own hotels, and many more years previous to that working with other owners. She also said, "I retired five years ago, but I just got tired of being retired, so here I am, back in it once more."

Mrs. Kiedyk owned and operated the Frontenac Hotel in Kingston for almost 12 years, and before that she owned and operated the Commercial Hotel in Russell, Ontario for five and a half years. She also owned and operated the Riverton Hotel in Manitoba and the Siesta Motel in Kingston.

Mrs. Kiedyk has a very pleasing personality, and is full of zest and energy, as she takes on her new role as operator of the Dominion Hotel. We are sure she will do well, and will like the Haliburton Highlands. And we are sure the entire community will join in with us, as we wish her the best of success.

As for Steve and Kay Rastall, they are off to California to live. The Rastalls have been fine citizens here over the years, and they will be greatly missed, however we wish them the best of success in their new adventures

CHRISTMAS TURKEY DRAW AT MEDLEY'S BOWL

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Medley announced this week they will be running a free Christmas Turkey draw, over the next few weeks. Four Turkeys will be drawn at the alleys in Carnarvon, and four are to be drawn here in Minden.

All one has to do to get a ticket in the drum is bowl three lines and fill out the lucky draw with name and address.

You don't have to be a bowler, or bowl in leagues, to get a chance on the Turkey draw, just drop in anytime, bowl three lines and you could be a winner.

Keep smiling. It makes everybody wonder what you've been up to.

This store now has a sewing machine department, with complete service on machines. Mr. Norm Harrison, assistant manager is pictured presenting the winner with a working manual.

Twenty-two girls travelled to Haliburton this past Saturday, to kick off the new season. Mrs. Patsy Gillogly will be the club professional again this year.

The Club will be selling tickets on a Barbie Doll and Wardrobe, to raise money for this year's activities. The Doll will be on display at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, here in Minden.

If anyone is wishing to join the club, please get in touch with any of the executive members.

CRAFTS WORKSHOP AT HYLAND CREST

Monday and Tuesday of this week were busy days at Hyland Crest. Mrs. Atwell and Miss Hill of the Department of Welfare visited the home. They had on display in the craft room dozens of articles made by residents of other homes throughout Ontario.

At the auxiliary meeting on Monday night Mrs. Atwell was guest speaker. Tuesday from 9 a.m. until late afternoon, was spent by the auxiliary ladies learning how to make various articles. It was a busy but educational and enjoyable day for everyone.

First of all to answer a letter from G. R. Pogue of Omeme.

Any place of business, car dealer or otherwise, should have two responsibilities to their customers — one legal and the other moral.

Unfortunately the legal one is the only one that counts. The point I'm making is that through an employees attitude a great deal may be lost. That is why I suggest the buyer beware when he buys anything — be sure the small things are as they should be — because after the deal is closed these small things that have been overlooked can present a problem — legally the dealer may be right but morally he owes his customer just a little bit more than legal.

* * * *

During the past week I have been running a poll on Reid W. Fosee's suggested signs and the majority lean towards the third sign — it might, as Mr. Forsee, stated, "raise a few eyebrows", but there could be no mistaking the idea behind it.

* * * *

Another theory about the "mysterious tracks".

The other afternoon Mrs. James Minto Sr. was looking out of her window when she noticed a big, shaggy, grey timber wolf head across the by-pass and over the hill towards the Progress Office.

From Mrs. Minto's description I'm sure he wasn't heading for the Progress — he sounds more like the wolf that has been living on my doorstep for some time now and he was just on his way home.

* * * *

The show in Fenelon Falls put on by the Senior Citizens' Club and under the direction of Tom Gunton, was a decided success. My good friend "Zanoni" George Laidlaw, (when he's at home) was his usual professional self. The two "go-go" girls (their combined ages were in the neighborhood of 150 years) were show stoppers. There is a possibility the senior citizens here may have the opportunity to see them.

* * * *

This time of year a hunting story wouldn't be out of place. Going through a check point ahead of us, just before we reached Norland, was a Volkswagen with an animal spreadeagled out on the roof. It was tied down by it's four feet. It caused quite a bit of comment — the animal? A large jack-rabbit.

* * * *

A young man was leaving for the city — his father had a talk to him. The father, who by the way, was a traveller, told him of all things to avoid in the city was the "strip houses." The young man wanted to know why he shouldn't attend these theatres. "Because" said the father, "you will see things there you shouldn't."

The first chance he got after he arrived in the city the young man went to the theatre — he saw something he shouldn't have — his father, in the front row.

* * * *

So, until next week, think on this peice of advice from the "Apocrypha". "Now therefore keep thy sorrows to thyself, and bear with good courage that which hath befallen thee."

MINDEN GOLFER MAKES NEW TORONTO MAGAZINE

Mr. Ken Currie of Minden, a very ardent golfer, had his picture appear in the first edition of a new Toronto Magazine, called "Toronto Life."

The picture was taken when he was playing in the Canadian Senior Amateur Championship, which is a two ball tournament.

Mr. Currie's partner in the event was Dr. F. M. Dean of Toronto, and the championship match was held at the Missauga Golf and County Club, Toronto.

LARGEST MOBILE SAFETY DISPLAY

Canada's largest mobile safety display was introduced today by the Ontario Department of Transport.

It's a large trailer coach, outfitted with display areas which emphasize the fact that drivers' skills and knowledge have to keep pace with changes in traffic, roads, laws and vehicles. The unit has a series of modern displays, both inside and out.

Safety officials from many organizations in the Toronto area attended the preview showing of the travelling Information Centre. It will have its first public showing in Timmins next week.

The information Centre will be available year-round to support safety activities in all parts of the province. It is one of the facets in the continuing campaign to impress on individuals the need for intelligent, informed, common-sense driving.

The new coach (which measures 60 feet when complete with tractor) replaces a smaller one which the Department has used in recent years. Public response, at such functions as fall fairs, led to the decision to expand the idea with a bigger trailer that is equipped with air-conditioning and heating for all weather use.

Lettered on the front of the Centre is the invitation to "come in, see what's happening in this modern world of traffic." Changes in driving conditions are indicated by contrasting pictures of an old road and a complicated modern interchange.

Films can be shown on one section of the exterior by the use of rear projection.

Inside, subjects of the displays include freeway driving, traffic signs, school buses, motorcycles, and driver instruction in secondary schools. One of the displays flashes on question about correct driving, and then flashes on the answers.

Mr. Haskett said his Department would co-operate with local groups in scheduling the Information Centre for visits to communities throughout Ontario. He invited their enquiries.

MINDEN FURNITURE CENTRE STORE OF FINE FURNISHINGS

Ted and Ester Madill, owners of the Minden Furniture Centre are a couple which the grandure of the Highlands of Haliburton captured — and has never let go. It was back in 1957 when the Madills came to this county for a holiday, from their home in Toronto, and have never left. They started Business here, and have made Minden their home.

Ted has had many years, (over thirty) in the car business, working in many different phases of this industry. When he saw the need for a furniture store here in Minden, he opened his own. When he first started he located in the building presently occupied by Sutton Automotive, his stay here was only for eight months, then he moved to the present location.

The building the furniture store now occupies has quite a history, it is one of the oldest buildings on the main street, and at one time was a general store, taxi stand, and at the time the Madills took over it was a service station or garage owned and operated by Mr. Earl Hewitt. It is said the building is over a hundred years old.

This store not only carries new and used furniture, but dry goods, drapery hardware, office supplies, gifts, souvenirs, floor coverings of all kinds and qualities. An added attraction at the Minden furniture centre is the free delivery they give as part of the service they render to their customers. They are now branching into antique furnishings, and this should prove to be an interesting branch of the business.

The Madills have one daughter, Eleanor who is attending public school. They purchased the Ireland farm three years ago, which is two miles out of town, and needless to say their interests now have turned to farming in their spare time. Ted has plans of developing the farm, as a hobby, and hopes to build up a herd of cattle in the future. He also has plans for his store, which entails increasing their fifty thousand dollars worth of merchandise, and renovating the store with a face lifting as well.

The Minden Furniture Centre adds to the many different business we have on our main street. It is the only furniture and yard-goods store in a fifty mile radius, with the many different lines of goods the Furniture Centre carries, it makes shopping for such merchandise a convenience to have them right here on our own main street.

Ted Madill is shown above in the midst of some fine furnishings. Ted says, "We can meet or beat city prices".

Mrs. Madill and a customer, Pat Maidens, are shown here looking over materials. They have a fine line in stock.

EVERYONE SHOULD TAKE AN INTEREST

With the nominations for council and school board being staged a week this Friday, November 25th, it should be everyone's concern in the Municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden, to be on hand and take an interest in this coming election. The nomination meeting will be held in the Municipal building, and will be between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m.

The election will be held Monday, December 5th, if one is needed to decide the offices for this municipality. The polls will be open from 9 a.m. till 6 p.m. The advance poll for those not being here on election day will be Saturday, December 3, and will open from 9 a.m. till 5 p.m.

An election in a Municipality should capture the interest of every citizen, and they should make it a point to attend the nomination meeting, and vote on election day. Living in such a Democracy, anyone is entitled to run for office, (long as their taxes are paid up) but much thought should be given before one does run, and on election day, much consideration should be given the candidates running for office.

Holding an office in municipal affairs is demanding and therefore one must surely qualify, before letting his name stand. It is not by any means an easy job to conduct the functions of a community.

A person running for office, as far as we are concerned must have several qualifications. First of all he must be honest and dedicated to his community; he must have the time to function when it is needed; he must be cooperative, yet — speak his mind; he must have the ability to manage, plan and solve, other's affairs and probably if he is going to represent the people well, he must be progressive. This last qualification is the most important one of all. For if a man is going to get the job done, and make a community a better and more prosperous place to live for all, then he must be progressive. A good candidate for office must not be one who puts off till tomorrow, what can be done today — but does today, what will be of great benefit tomorrow.

Times are changing rapidly, cost of living is rising constantly, if the people of this municipality are going to survive financially, we must progress with everyone around us. This town must go ahead and meet the demands of the time, this is the only way we can expect higher salaries and a better environment to live in.

This is the age of higher taxes, and taxes are as sure as death itself, but it is the cheapest way for a community to progress, and get the many things needed to make it a more profitable place to live. A council is not doing the job if taxes remain stable — we must expect to pay, if we are to better ourselves.

Make sure you tax payers, give municipal politics a good thought, and put your interest into this coming election.

SPORTS

WITH BOB BEENEY

Soup Campbell, President of the Minden Minor Hockey Association, and I travelled to Cannington last Sunday in hopes of persuading the Kawartha Minor Hockey League in accepting entries from Minden for the hockey season. However the attempt was futile and the only alternative is to enter the teams in the Ontario Minor Hockey Association for league competition.

We learned of our futile bid at the annual Con-venor's meeting which was chaired by Mr. Gordon Hawes, second vice-president of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

The Kawartha Minor Hockey League is operated by a closely knit group of individuals from centres like Coboconk, Fenelon Falls, Bobcaygeon and other towns in that area.

Minden and Haliburton had hoped to be included in this league to give players in the Minden Minor Hockey Association good competition with a minimum of travel.

Unless entry is made in the OMHA, teams will have to play a season of exhibition games and tournaments.

Four teams from Minden were entered in the OMHA verbally, but it is very doubtful whether four teams will ever compete in the league. The teams that were represented at the convenors meeting were the Squirts, Pee Wees, Bantams, and Juveniles. Coaches of teams are contacting parents for approval or disapproval before final decisions will be made.

The only downfall with being entered in the OMHA is the distances to be travelled for the games away from home. Even though games away usually start at 7:00 p.m. it would still be around 10:30 p.m. before the youngsters would get home.

There are considerable benefits in joining the OMHA. Good competition is the main benefit, and this is one item that has been lacking for a number of years. Facing different competition in different centres seems to give the budding young hockey players more confidence.

There isn't any doubt that entry in the OMHA will help develop hockey players, but whether this would compensate for the late hours will be difficult to determine.

There are five teams in the Minden Minor Hockey Association, and here is a run down on them.

Mites — Quite a few new youngsters being trained by Harry Cowan and it looks as if there'll be some good players around in a year or two.

Squirts — About a dozen or so players and only half of them held over from last year. It will be a couple of years before a good squirt team is developed.

Pee Wees — The best chance for a pee wee team to win in many a year. Most of the players are holdovers from last year along with a bunch of promoted squirts.

Bantams — A bad year for the bantams with only enough to ice a team. Three good additions, Bill Leary, Wayne Johnson, and Leigh Bull. Next year will be a brighter one.

Juvenile — The midgets have combined with the juveniles to make a team. Not expected to be champions, but will provide stiff competition for opposing teams.

"LET ONE CALL DO IT ALL"

IF YOU ARE GOING TO RIDE A SNOWMOBILE THIS WINTER — KNOW THE SAFETY RULES

Snowmobiling is fast becoming one of Ontario's most popular winter sports. The powered snow toboggan, invented about forty years ago to solve the problem of winter isolation in rural and bush areas, has been gradually developed into the sleek, streamlined vehicle of today.

For fast, exhilarating outdoor fun, the vehicle is hard to excel, but the fun depends upon the level-headed thinking of the driver. With a number of enthusiasts expected to increase by leaps and bounds this winter, it is important that the driver become wise in the care and safe handling of his machine.

Safety must come first.

Learn the proper way to care for and operate your machine. The rules are laid down in the manual that goes with it. They are not designed to spoil your fun but to help you enjoy the sport without being crippled or killed. Acquire enough knowledge of the mechanics to be able to make minor repairs in an emergency.

Learning how to avoid the hazards may be a bit rough if you learn from personal experience only. Join a snowmobile club or start one among the enthusiasts in your neighbourhood. There may be an expert or two among the group from whom you'll glean valuable knowledge. When accidents happen, even minor ones, obtain the facts and hold a round-table discussion. Point up the unsafe acts and unsafe conditions causing the accident. You'll be surprised at how expert you'll become at snowmobiling safely without giving up the thrills.

Observe these safety rules. Don't ride with your feet hooked under any part of the machine. Leave yourself free to jump off, if it's necessary. A broken ankle or leg may result if you use a foot as a brake, or a prop to push against the snow if the machine overbalances. Learn how to balance and shift your weight and keep both feet on the machine, preferably on the running boards.

If the machine starts to tip, turn off the motor and let the machine fall. Fall with it. The running board will protect you. Or, turn off the engine and jump clear. Don't "freeze" and hang on to the throttle. If the throttle has frozen open with the cold, stall the motor quickly by pulling the choke.

Avoid hazards. Think twice about jumping hurdles. Get to know the terrain first. Know your own limitations. If you hit an unexpected bump, can you hold the machine on course? Keep it balanced? Retain your seat? Broken bones and jarred spines aren't fun.

A child should not run a machine without supervision. He may be able to drive well but he is not mature enough to recognize impending dangers.

Carry the following emergency equipment in case of a mechanical breakdown. A spark plug, a kit for cleaning plugs, a can of fuel, a drive belt or traction belt, a rope to pull the machine free if wedged between rocks and trees, and any other spare parts necessary. Carry a pair of snowshoes for each passenger. It's a long hike back to a garage if you're in isolated country. Take a first aid kit, an axe, a topographical map of the area, waterproof matches, and a few rations such as chocolate bars, tea, coffee and dehydrated foods, and a small pan to melt snow. If a breakdown occurs on a lake or in wide open spaces, a tarp or plastic sheet will afford protection in a storm.

Tenders Wanted

Tenders wanted for the refinishing of the gymnasium and stage floor at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School in accordance with specifications available from the Secretary-Treasurer or the school office.

Work to be done completely during Christmas holidays.

Sealed and marked tenders will be received by the Secretary-Treasurer until 5 p.m. Friday November 29, 1966.

Pictured above gives one a good view of the Centennial Caravan which will be travelling around the country next year.

A definite date has now been set for the visit of the Centennial Caravan here in Minden. Reeve Charles Brandon stated today that the Caravan, will be here on Wednesday, August 23rd., and will be open from 11 a.m. til 11 p.m.

Mr. Brandon said that the Centennial Committee have asked for permission of the Fair Board for the use of the Fair grounds. Much room is needed for the display, for as one can see in the picture, there are six vans which make up the Caravan.

The Caravan displays many of the historical features of Canada in days gone by. This should be a big attraction when it arrives next August in Centennial year, and no doubt it will be well attended by the Minden people as well as the summer residents and visitors.

When the Caravan moves into position for its display, one can walk through all the vans without going outside.

On the original plans for the Caravans route, Minden was bypassed, but through the efforts of council, arrangements were made for a one day showing.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MOTORISTS

Effective January 1, 1967, a passenger in a motor vehicle, who is not paying a fare for passage, will have the right to claim damages from the driver and/or owner of the vehicle if he's injured in an accident caused by the driver's gross negligence. (There will be no change in the law affecting fare-paying passengers, who will continue to have the right to claim damages.)

The insurance industry advises that almost all automobile liability insurance policies now in effect include coverage against this new risk. However, all motor vehicle owners, and particularly motorcycle owners, are urged to check their policies to make sure that passenger hazard coverage is included. If there is any doubt you should check with your automobile insurance agent.

HI NEWS

with Dianne Earle

We're still collecting payments from the Walk-A-Thon sponsors — come on gang, let's get that $900 collected, and soon! We have to start paying for the upcoming formal too. It's about the Mid-Winter Night's Dream Prom coming up in February. Buy your tickets NOW — everyone! A Formal is a small but very important part of that new arrival to H.H.S.S. — school spirit, as was the very successful Chariot Race of last Wednesday. Of the nine entries, run in three heats, the winning Chariot was that of 12E, Gary Dewey Captain.

These victors rated beautiful beanies which they wore all day throughout the classrooms, shouting hurrah! And then there were the lollipop suckers — Jane McKay's crew who won first prize for the originality of their Pollock Ben Hearse. So the race was run and all survived — amazingly.

It was a short week, Friday being a holiday. Holiday? Well, even we thoughtless, unappreciative youth realize the meaning of Remembrance Day. And we DO care. We revel in our freedom, in our affluence, in our liberty to LIVE. But, remember, they say. Remember — and, lest we forget — poppies. We can do more than remember past sacrifices. We are in the position to prevent future sacrifices. And, given the chance, we will do something about this terrifying demon, this cursed, ever-lurking shadow — WAR. We know that war is not kind — that war is not good — that war is not essential to man's existence, nor to his highly-valued freedom. What is freedom, anyway? Was man really born to die? Why should society demand that we follow society's principles — principles which justify loss of life for rights. Rights? We have rights — we have privileges. But WHY do they mean so much? Why must human lives be given up for mere rights? Today's youth will not put up with a Third World War. Today's youth cannot survive a Third World War. For, if fallout, or bombs or actual combat do not kill us physically, our souls (do we have souls anymore?) will succumb to the utter defeat of man's fallacy, and, without meaning to life, who can truly live? And so we remembered — on Friday we attended Remembrance Day services — all week we bought poppies — and, then — ? If this is our whole tribute, we deserve to perish in another war. But, if we have the foresight and the courage to challenge war, some day there will be no need to remember. Someday we shall overcome, and live in peace. But, if the goal be ours, so must the means. It's up to us. How long will Remembrance Day last this year?

LINDSAY PLANS ITS OWN CENTENNIAL PAGEANT

An immense Canadian flag and the colour and pageantry of 100 flags and banners carried by members of Lindsay organizations, will highlight the "Flag Pageant" now in production for Centennial year in Lindsay. The theme will be "all Lindsay under one flag" and it is expected that 150 adults and children will take part.

This spectacle will consist of colour parties from Lodges and their affiliated Ladies' Chapters, Service Clubs, Bands, Veterans groups, police and Fire Departments, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Cubs and Brownies, Rangers, C.G.I.T., and other well-known organizations.

Featured in the Pageant will be the Lindsay Collegiate and Vocational Institute Choir under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Sims, Choir Director at L.C.V.I.; a "Miss Canada" portrayed by Miss Jane Webster and her two ladies in waiting, Miss Jane Norris and Miss Elizabeth Thurston. Members of the Muir Academy of Dancing will also appear. An orchestra will provide the musical spirit for the occasion.

The Pageant will be directed by Miss Joyce Yarde, assisted by Mrs. William E. Perry and Mr. Douglas Nichols. Miss Yarde has produced a number of such events while residing in Toronto. The intricate staging will be constructed under the supervision of Mr. A. S. Peel. Rehearsal accompanist will be Mrs. Evelyn Armstrong.

This production will form the second half of the "Gloria Barrett Centennial Revue" to be held at the Academy Theatre, Lindsay, on Saturday, March 18th, 1967 under the sponsorship of the Academy Foundation Womens' Guild. The entire programme will be produced by Mrs. Gloria Barrett and will emphasize the Centennial theme.

In addition to the participants in the Pageant, many local artists in costume will be featured in the first half of the programme which will explore the realm of music and dance from 1867 to 1967.

This "Centennial Variety Local Talent Revue and Pageant" will be a blaze of glory and it is hoped that every theatre patron will leave with spine tingling pride in being a Canadian in Lindsay during the Centennial year of 1967.
